

MONEY IN POLITICS REPORT:

Out of 100 U.S. Senators, Thom Tillis Ranks 4th IN MONEY FROM THE GUN LOBBY.

YOUR CANDIDATES FOR U.S. SENATE

On the Issues

Across North Carolina, voters are doing their research to determine which candidates will best represent their families in the U.S. Senate.

Cal Cunningham is a veteran, so he understands the responsibility that comes with carrying a weapon. That's why he supports background checks on all gun sales.

The gun lobby spent over $4 million to elect Sen. Thom Tillis, and he voted against background checks on all gun sales.

See inside to learn more about what the gun lobby's money buys.

Paid for by Giffords PAC, www.giffords.org, and not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Sen. Thom Tillis: Bought and Paid for by His Gun Lobby Donors

We deserve a senator who will work to keep us safe from gun violence, but we can't trust Thom Tillis to protect us. Instead, he has chosen to side with his gun lobby donors—leaving us behind.

Sen. Thom Tillis:

- ✗ Was elected with $4 million in help from the gun lobby.
- ✗ Opposed background checks on all gun purchases.
- ✗ Voted against laws that would have kept people convicted of domestic abuse and other serious offenses from purchasing guns.

SOURCE: 1. Charlotte Observer, 2/15/18; 2. ABC News, 2/20/18

Cal Cunningham Supports Commonsense Gun Safety Laws

Cal Cunningham is a U.S. Army veteran. He's been trained to use a gun, so he understands the responsibility of carrying a firearm.

- ✓ As Vice Chair of the North Carolina Crime Commission, Cal helped develop recommendations to lower the risk of school shootings.
- ✓ Cal supports background checks for all gun purchases to keep guns from convicted domestic abusers.
- ✓ Cal supports extreme risk laws to keep guns out of the hands of those who are a danger to themselves and others.

Cal Cunningham was a member of the U.S. Army. Use of his military rank, job titles, and photographs in uniform does not imply endorsement by the U.S. Army or the Department of Defense.