

There are a number of grants across different agencies that can be leveraged to support connections between intermediaries and community-based organizations (CBOs) doing violence intervention work. In recent years, the departments of Justice, Labor, and Housing and Urban Development have issued notices of funding opportunities (NOFOs) ranging from $10 to $85 million for intermediaries to support community organizations providing violence intervention, employment, mentorship, reentry, and housing services. This table highlights some grant opportunities worth exploring if your organization is or is looking to partner with an intermediary.

FOCUS AREA	NAME	DEPARTMENT	DESCRIPTION	ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS	GRANTEE AND SUBGRANTEE REQUIREMENTS	MOST RECENT FUNDING LEVEL	LAST NOFO ISSUED
Community Violence; Public Safety	Community Violence Intervention and Prevention Initiative (CVIPI) - Category 4 - CVIPI for Capacity Building	DOJ - OJP - BJA	Provides funding for capacity building, training, technical assistance, and support of the community violence intervention field. This funding is intended to address barriers that many CBOs encounter accessing and administering federal grants. Intermediary organizations are eligible to apply for up to $4 million over 3 years under the capacity building category.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public and state-controlled institutions of higher education Private institutions of higher education Nonprofits with or without 501(c)(3) status, excluding institutions of higher education For-profit organization including small businesses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify and provide intensive training and technical assistance, oversight, and subawards to up to five community based organizations Increase capacity of community violence intervention efforts and promote workforce development Applicants must have direct experience developing relationships with underserved communities In collaboration with OJP, competitively award grants and provide technical assistance to CBOs implementing or expanding intervention programs Intermediary organizations may be comprised of partnerships between collaborating entities 	$12 million	3/7/2023
Employment; Community Violence	Growth Opportunities	DOL	Focuses on preparing justice-involved youth and young adults for employment by funding efforts to provide training, paid work experience, mentorship, leadership development, and community violence intervention services. Intermediary applicants are eligible to apply for up to $4 million.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> County governments City or township governments Special district governments Regional government organization Independent school districts Federally recognized Indian/Native American tribal governments Nonprofits other than institutions of higher education, with 501(c)(3) status, including union training funds, faith-based, women's, minority, and community based organizations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support delivery of direct services by subgrantees Facilitate the replication of best practices Provide sub-grantees with administrative and fiscal support/management to ensure compliance with DOL requirements Must have a distinct justice system partner 	$85 million	3/17/2022
Reentry; Employment	Young Adult Reentry Partnership (YARP)	DOL	Provides funding to community- or faith-based intermediary organizations partnering with subgrantees to provide reentry services including education and training focused on improving employment outcomes for justice-involved youth. Applicants that serve communities with high rates of poverty and crime are prioritized.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Community- or faith-based intermediary organizations with 501(c)(3) status Federally recognized Indian/Native American tribes and tribal organizations as defined in 25 U.S.C. 450b Native Alaskan/Hawaiian/ Indian-controlled organizations 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Support delivery of direct services by subgrantees to individuals between 18 and 24 Applicants must serve at least three communities and have a presence across two or more states Grantees have discretion to enroll individuals convicted of violent offenses, provided a rigorous risk assessment is conducted Participants eligible to participate in funded programming must have dropped out of high school (no more than 10% of participants) OR be currently or previously involved in the juvenile or adult criminal justice system 	$25 million	3/16/2020
Housing	Resident Opportunity and Self-Sufficiency Service (ROSS) Coordinator Program	HUD	Designed to help eliminate educational, professional, and health barriers among residents of public housing and help them achieve economic and housing self-sufficiency by providing funding to hire a service coordinator.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public housing authorities/Indian housing authorities Nonprofits with 501(c)(3) status (excluding institutions of higher education) Resident associations; this category includes intermediary resident organizations Native American tribal governments Indian tribes and tribally-designated housing entities 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provides funding to hire a "Service Coordinator" responsible for assessing the needs of public housing residents and connecting them with training and support services Grant can also support the efforts to provide direct services to participants or for subcontracting direct services Grantees must assess the needs of residents, coordinate and direct service delivery, provide case management or coaching, engage residents, evaluate progress, and submit an annual report 	$35 million	5/18/2022